

What to Expect

*Thank you for joining us on an international trip with Lifewater.
We could not do this life-saving work without you.*

Our desire for you on this trip is that you would grow deeper in your walk with Christ as you see the kingdom building work happening in the places we serve. Our daily itinerary and schedule provides times of prayer, fellowship, and encouragement as we join together on this mission. We've listed out a few things that you should expect from us as well as what we can expect from you as you prayerfully consider joining us.

What to expect from us:

- An edifying trip that will push you to overcome obstacles and draw closer to Christ
- A culture of mutual respect, patience, and encouragement as we serve together, share meals and fellowship
- Daily Scripture readings that inspire you as you serve
- A team leader that is looking out for the well-being and safety of the entire team
- An eye-opening experience as you see God's redemptive work in overcoming water poverty in very vulnerable communities
- Servant leadership modeled from the Lifewater team

What we can expect from you:

- An attitude of respect, encouragement, and kindness toward your fellow team members
- Open communication with your team leader about any physical or emotional conditions that affect your participation
- No excessive alcohol consumption or recreational drug use
- Adherence to safety and security rules
- No inappropriate or distracting sexual conduct with other team members or Lifewater staff
